

Our Commitment to You: Bodywhys Donor Charter

When you make a gift to Bodywhys, we make this commitment to you:

- We will treat all donors with respect and confidentiality
- We will ensure that our communication with you is honest and transparent
- You will receive a prompt acknowledgement of your gift, where appropriate and where we have the information necessary to do so
- Our fundraisers will observe appropriate professional and ethical standards at all times
- We will keep administration and fundraising costs to a minimum
- Your gift will be handled responsibly and in accordance with Bodywhys' charitable purposes and financial procedures
- Your right to privacy will be respected and Bodywhys will comply with the laws relating to fundraising and use of personal data
- Where applicable, tax relief on donations will be claimed
- We will ensure that funds raised for a specific purpose are used for their intended purpose. Where excess funds remain, Bodywhys will discuss their return or reallocation with the relevant donor or funder and detail this in our financial reports. Unrestricted donations will be used in accordance with Bodywhys' charitable purposes and strategic priorities
- We will prepare externally audited accounts. These accounts are available from our head office for inspection at any time. We will also prepare an annual report summarising our activities and financial results
- We will seek to maximise the value of public donations by applying for funding from official funding bodies e.g. the Government, the European Union
- We will respond to donor enquiries in a timely and appropriate manner
- We will conduct fundraising in accordance with applicable legislation, regulatory requirements and relevant fundraising standards and guidance
- We will comply with applicable charity law, fundraising requirements, and relevant regulatory guidance

- We will respect your privacy and handle your personal information in accordance with applicable data protection legislation and Bodywhys' Data Protection and Privacy policies. We will not share your personal information with third parties except where permitted or required by law or where you have otherwise given appropriate consent.

Your support is vital to our work.
